COMPONE STAFF SUPPORTS THE AMERICAN RED CROSS AND DONATES BLOOD AT AUSTINTOWN LIBRARY

Boardman, OH – June 7, 2013 – CompOne, a managed care organization (MCO), supported the American Red Cross by their staff participating and donating blood at the Austintown Library on May 23rd.

CompOne is an MCO for employers and injured workers. For employers, it provides medical case management for lost-time claims, works to keep premiums low and reduces the number of unnecessary lost-time workers' compensation claims. They also create a plan of action to return the employer's injured worker to the workplace with possible resolution of claims. The company helps keep employers' costs down and employees on the job while providing a Preferred Provider Panel. For injured workers, CompOne provides support throughout the claims process by assisting in filing claims with the Bureau of Workers' Compensation (BWC). This prevents delays and evaluates appropriateness and necessity of medical service necessary for a quick recovery and return to work. They also handle the medical management of an injured worker's claim, authorizes medical treatment reimbursement decisions, resolves medical disputes, recommends rehab referrals and supplies forms.

CompOne facilitates aggressive case management, provides personalized reporting materials and performs all workers' compensation services on-site, at the workplace or during provider visits.
